On the subject of Billy Green, the scout, the submission above by David B. Clark, UE, includes this line [in the expended PDF biography]: "The fact that his brother Freeman had earlier brought information about the American encampment would have helped to establish Billy's credibility among the British officers." What a tease!

Even a short section of consecutive text pages from the Hamzanama shows little unity in persons and places. The longest, readily available sequence of Hamzanama text pages is pages 20-27 in volume 11. [76] Table 1 shows for each of these pages the number of places where an action occurs, and the number of distinctively named characters who are the subjects of action.
