The third element of true love is joy, mudita. If there is no joy in love, it is not true love. If you are suffering all the time, if you cry all the time, and if you make the person you love cry, this is not really love—it is even the opposite. If there is no joy in your love, you can be sure that it is not true love.

universe. True love connects to the family, the society, the nation, the world and the universe. (294-63, 1998.6.11) If true love were perfected, our responsive God would have no regrets even if He were completely immersed in it. God will rejoice over anything and everything that happens, as long as He is surrounded by true love.

And dull my brand new ecstasies With sophomoric pain. I need the love of some blank boy As cold and dark as me, That we might grope in ignorance And fear of what might be. And then, when I'm a silver bowl And know what I can hold, Then, then, perhaps, we could try love If you are not too old. LOVE POEMS 7
