Sally Mann (born May 1, 1951) is an American photographer, widely known for her large-format, black-and-white photographsâ€”at first of her young children, then later of landscapes suggesting decay and death.

Sally Mann - Wikipedia

Photography is the art, application and practice of creating durable images by recording light or other electromagnetic radiation, either electronically by means of an image sensor, or chemically by means of a light-sensitive material such as photographic film. It is employed in many fields of science, manufacturing (e.g., photolithography), and business, as well as its more direct uses for art ...

Hi Sheila, thatâ€™s a good point, the second letter is really aimed at a DIY situation, where the photographer is taking matters forward him/herself, at least in the early stages, or wanting to make a settlement offer to see if a quick and easy settlement is possible without incurring legal fees. If a lawyer is involved (and of course, itâ€™s better if there is, provided you have the budget ...
